PRO YOUTH CHARGED WITH RAPE INTENT

INDIANAPOLIS ON MONDAY

Due, 20-year-old was arrested in Indianapolis by Sheriff John on a warrant issued in county, charging him with assault and battery with intent to commit rape.

The arrest was the result of a complaint on the DePauw university campus at 1:40 a. m. when a 17-year-old college colored girl was accused of being beaten at the north-entrance steps to the East building.

girl, who was on her way from a dance at a downtown organization, recalled her assailant. She gave the name of Claude Irwin, night porter of the city police, who lived at a south Illinois address by her mother.

girl told the officer that she was stopped by him, threatened to kill her if she talked, and he struck her on the head and forced her down on the steps of the college building.
Screams were heard by employees of the university who hurried to the scene only to find the assailant run and disappeared into the darkness.

Affidavit against Due was filed by Mrs. Lucy Sligh, the mother.

defendant, a former college youth, is a student attending school at Indianapolis.

reading the charge against him in circuit court at Indianapolis Tuesday morning.
Due asked Judge H. Allen to allow time for consultation with his client and general bond.

Oct. 10, at 9:30 a. m. as time for arraignment and fixed the bail bond at $1,000.

Word has been received by relatives of the death last night of Richard M. Hazlett of Marion.
The death was not unexpected, as it has been a lingering illness.

of Samuel A. and Helen Tuttle Hazlett and spent the greater part of his life in and around Greencastle.

He leaves a wife, two sons,

Unemployment Soars In U. S.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 4.—(UP)— Unemployment mounted rapidly today as the impact of the steel and coal strikes spread by the hour through the nation's staggering industrial machine.

The number of strike-idled may well hit 1,250,000 by the end of the week and 2,000,000 by Nov. 1 if the strikes continue.

As workers in allied industries were being furloughed by the thousands, new efforts were underway to end both the steel and coal walkouts, which stemmed from pension disputes.

In Washington, top-secret conferences between federal mediators and presidential assistant John R. Steelman were believed to have laid the groundwork for renewed efforts to settle the strikes. Some government action, perhaps from the White House itself, was expected by the end of the week.

Officials of the United Mine Workers meanwhile returned to the conference table today with the southern operators at Bluefield, W. Va. Contract talks with the big commercial northern and western operators will resume tomorrow at nearby White Sulphur springs.

On the eve of the negotiations, new outbursts of gunplay rocked the violence-ridden coal fields.
Non-union coal miners ambushed a group of union men at Pikeville, Tenn., wounding three of them with rifle and shotgun fire.
Two other union men were reported missing after the encounter.

At the same time local officials at Grundy, Va., were investigating the killing of a non-union truck driver. He was crushed by a boulder that crashed down from a mountainside, and police said they suspected fool play.

In Pennsylvania, warrants were out for the arrest of eight men after a band of 110 pickets overturned a supply house and damaged equipment at a non-union strip mine in Elk county.

Reelsville Man Dies At Hospital

Henry C. Farley, age 63 years, a resident of Reelsville, died early Tuesday morning at the Putnam county hospital. He suffered a heart attack Monday which resulted in his death this morning.

Surviving are one brother, Everett of Winchester, Ky. and one sister, Mrs. Ada B. Tyler of Hayward, Calif.

The body was taken to the Mc-Curry Funeral Home.
Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

GRAND JURY INDICTMENT CASE OPENS

GEORGE WALDRON CHARGED WITH INVOLUNTARY
MANSLAUGHTER

Trial of George Waldron, Greencastle, charged with involuntary manslaughter in a Putnam grand jury indictment returned last April, started in circuit court Tuesday morning at 10:15 o'clock. The defendant waived trial by jury, leaving the ultimate decision to Judge John H. Allen.

The case against the local man followed a two-car accident on state road 136, near Roachdale, on February 26, 1949, in which Mrs. Drusilla Surber, of Russellville, suffered injuries which caused her death in a Crawfords-ville hospital on March 4th.

The indictment against Waldron is on two counts. He is charged with driving and operating an Oldsmobile coupe on road 136 while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and while in such condition drove into and against an auto operated by Thomas Surber in which Mrs.
Surber was riding.

It is also charged that he drove "wantonly and recklessly" on the left side of said highway.

Prosecutor Frank Durham was representing the State of Indiana while Francis N. Hamilton was the defendant's attorney.

Serving of the indictment on Mr. Waldron was delayed last Spring due to the fact that he sustained a fractured leg in the accident and was unable to appear in court for some weeks. He entered a plea of not guilty when he was able to get into the courtroom and was released under bond pending trial.

County Cattle Breeder At Top

Putnam County Polled Hereford cattle breeders are rapidly coming to the top in Indiana.
Evidence of this was the state Polled Hereford Sale held last week at Frankfort.

A two year old Polled Hereford heifer, bred and shown by Paul McGaughey and Son of Russellville was the reserve champion female of the show and a calf bred and shown by Arnold Farms of Stilesville was reserve champion bull of the show and sale. The McGaughey heifer sold for $490.00 and the Arnold bull sold for $500.00.

In the aggressive breeding program of county breeders, Paul McGaughey and Son purchased the grand champion heifer of the show and sale consigned by Walter Gray of Crawfordsville and Frank Smith and Son of Bainbridge purchased two outstanding heifers for his herd.

White Funeral On Wednesday

John and Mary Reynolds White.

Mr. White had spent practically all his life in this community where he was well known. He had been in failing health for the past several years.

Survivors are: the widow, Maggie; one sister, Hazel, one brother, Roy all of Greencastle.

Wednesday at 3 p. m. Burial will be in Forest Hill cemetery.

POLISH HERO ARRIVES IN U. S.

AMONG THE ARRIVALS in New York aboard the S. S. General McRae is Maj. Gregory Gudofsky, hero of the Polish underground. He is credited with killing General Kucera, son-in-law of the notorious Heinrich Himmler, during a raid on which he also accounted for two other Nazi generals. Gudofsky, whose real name is Gutman, will make his new home with a cousin in the Bronx. He is telling a story to Deiders Janis, 2-year-old immigrant from Poland. (International)

Boy On Bicycle Causes Mishap

Sudden application of brakes to avoid hitting a youngster on a bicycle, resulted in a traffic accident at the corner of Washington and College Avenue at 5:20 p. m. Monday, city police reported.

Mrs. Maurice Hurst, driving west on Washington in a 1947 Packard auto, applied the car brakes quickly when a boy on a bicycle rode out in front of her from College Avenue. The car stopped so suddenly that a Ford truck, owned by Lee Todd and being driven by Earl Hinkle, had no chance to stop and ran into the rear of the Hurst automobile, causing considerable damage.

Police said Mrs. Hurst was severely jolted by the impact.

Crises Develop On Money Values

LONDON, Oct. 4.—(UP)— Britain's devaluation of the pound sterling, which set off a chain reaction of currency devaluation around the world, appeared today to be starting a smaller epidemic of government crises in Western Europe.

France, where devaluation of the franc was ordered only after emergency meetings and much soul searching, has been the most critically affected.

Belgium faces a special parliamentary debate on the issue this month which may force the government to quit or broaden the present coalition.

The British crisis—both economic and political—tops the list.

The British Labor Party has a large enough majority in parliament to remain in power at least until elections, which must be held by law next July. But pressure for early election is growing, even among the trade unionists.

This month's Marshall plan organization talks in Paris may also have a big effect on the European political situation.
The British action to devalue taken with only a few hours advance notice, has caused much ill-feeling among the Western European states.

The trend—through Marshall aid, through the European Council at Strasbourg, through the Brussels Pact and the Atlantic Pact—has been toward more and more consultation on a long list of subjects.

Two Top Demos Are Pessimistic

ST. PAUL, Oct. 4.—(UP)— Two top Democrats said today that President Truman's "Fair Deal" legislative program may be completely dead unless the AFL and CIO agree to cooperate in national politics.

The two Democrats were Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin and Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D., Minn.

In speeches to the AFL's 68th annual convention, both Humphrey and Tobin stressed that unity in politics should be the primary goal of the American labor movement.

In doing so, they ran afoul of national AFL policy which stipulates that the AFL will not cooperate with the CIO in politics until the two big labor organizations merge.

Humphrey told the convention that "the only discouraging sign on the political horizon" were that too many labor and liberal groups had refused to cooperate with each other "because of personal pride or petty differences."

Tobin in a speech to the convention today, said labor should join in the 1950 congressional elections to defeat its enemies and elect its friends.

Humphrey, an AFL favorite, told the federation in blunt terms that joint labor action in political campaigns was "the only hope" for labor.

Tobin walked a little softer on that subject but he ended up saying much the same thing.
Both Tobin's and Humphrey's speeches touched off an old battle within the AFL.

Seeks Freedom From Jail Cell

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 4.— (UP)—A justice of the peace was scheduled to hear oral arguments today on whether there is sufficient evidence to hold Mrs.
Clarice Spurlock on a charge she poisoned her mother with arsenic last year.

Mrs. Spurlock, who celebrated her 28th birthday anniversary in jail, was arrested on an affidavit filed in Vanderburgh circuit court. That affidavit was voided by a state supreme court ruling that it should have been filed in a lower court.

Mrs. Eulice Irene Dearing, 56, Huntingburg, died during a visit to her daughter's home here last November.

Mrs. Spurlock appeared briefly before Justice Russell Judd yesterday, but he delayed oral arguments until today.

CONFERENCES SCHEDULED IN SOVIET ZONE

TOP RED OFFICIALS IN EASTERN BERLIN HOLD
PARLEYS

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—(UP)—Top officials of the Soviet zone of Germany have been summoned to Berlin for conferences which may result in proclamation of an Eastern German state, reliable sources said today.

These sources said the Soviet move would be aimed at preventing incorporation of the Western German state into the Western European union by playing on German desires for a single government centered in Berlin.

Sources close to the East German administration said the ministers of the five Soviet zone states had been summoned to meet in Berlin today. The peoples council of the Soviet zone also has been called into an emergency session for later this week.

In addition, German quarters said, Socialist Unity (Communist) party leaders already are in Berlin conferring with Russian military authorities.
Leaders of the Christian Democrats, the minority party in the Soviet zone, also have been called to Berlin.

Veteran political observers said the Soviet counterpart of the Bonn government may be announced soon. Its leaders were expected to offer the Western German government an open invitation to join in a single government for all of Germany.

At the outset, political observers said, the single government would be on Communist terms. The Communists however, would slowly give ground and possibly agree to a United Germany on Western terms within the next five years, these observers said.

The recent Soviet note denouncing the Western Powers and charging that formation of the Bonn government violated the Potsdam agreement was seen as a Soviet move to lay the groundwork for proclamation of an eastern German state.

The Hungarian government in a note to the Western Powers delivered last night repeated the general contents of the Soviet note.

The Hungarian note said formation of the West German government was "contradictory to international agreements" and that the Hungarian government fully supported the views contained in the Soviet note.

In London, the Communist daily worker said that Soviet zone authorities cannot afford to delay establishing a government much longer.

"This government obviously would need to assume Germany's obligations under the Potsdam agreement," The Daily Worker said. "It would be a government of Germany, not merely of the Eastern zone."

Ex-Local Woman Dies In N. Mexico

Word has been received here from Valmore, New Mexico, of the death of Mrs. Clarence Anderson of Chicago, formerly Miss

O. Riggs and Mrs. C. O. Riggs.

Surviving are the husband, C.
C. Anderson, a young daughter, Cynthia, her mother, Mrs. C. O.
Riggs of Greencastle, and one brother, C. D. Riggs of Lafayette.

YOUTH KILLED

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 4 (UP)— Police said today Paul Neal, 20, Indianapolis, was killed last night when he was thrown from a motorcycle on which he and his brother, Harry, 18, were riding.

KILLED BY TRUCK

New Castle, driver of the truck was not held.

Guilty Conscience?

Mike Boswell, 111 Jacob Street, received a letter Saturday which contained 15 cents. The note was not signed but it read "Several years ago I went in your home and took a cup of sugar while you and your family were gone. I know I did wrong and hope this 15c will pay for it."

BULLETIN Truman Reviews Famed Division

FORT BRAGG, N. C. Oct. 4.— (INS)—President Truman flew to his North Carolina army base today to review the famed 82nd Airborne Division and see the latest post-war developments in airborne operations.

Gov. W. Kerr Scott, of North Carolina, and Gen. Mark Clark, commander of the army field forces, were on hand to welcome Mr. Truman as the presidential plane landed at Pope Field.

The President planned to spend about six hours on the 290 square-mile army base, one of the country's largest military reservations, before returning to the capitol this afternoon.
Army Secretary Gray and Army Chief of Staff Gen. Lawton J.
Collins accompanied the President.

Yanks Rely On Allie Reynolds

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (INS)— Allie Reynolds was named today to pitch the opening World Series game tomorrow for the New York Yankees, but manager Burt Shotton of the Brooklyn Dodgers maintained a cagey silence about his mound selection.

Shotton said he will not announce his pitcher until just before tomorrow's first game at Yankee Stadium. Big Don New-combe and southpaw Preacher Roe, with 17 and 15 wins, respectively, are likely choices. A threat of rain hangs over tomorrow's World Series opener between the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers. The weather bureau reported today that a rain area moving up from the lower Mississippi by game time.

"Laughing Killer" Gets Life Term

FRANKLIN, Ind., Oct. 4.— (UP)—"Laughing killer" William Martin Caine, 28, Evansville, today began a life prison sentence as the murder trial of three men who allegedly accompanied him on a fatal holdup continued.

Caine pleaded guilty to first-degree murder in the death of Lloyd L. Abbott, 49, before Johnson county circuit Judge Oral F. Barnett yesterday. But three other accused men pleaded innocent.

A jury was expected to be completed today to try Elbert Hansbrough, 22, and Harold Lloyd, 23, both of Indianapolis, and John Parnell, 18, Louisville, Ky., who allegedly were with Caine when Abbott was shot March 2.

Caine was called the "laughing killer" because he reportedly joked and laughed during the holdup before firing at Abbott.

TROPIC STORM HITS HOUSTON; DAMAGE HEAVY

POWER AND TELEPHONE LINES TORN DOWN BY HURRICANE

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 4. (UP)— A tropical hurricane hit Houston today and drove 50,000 persons out of their homes in 10 cities as it roared northwards out of the Gulf of Mexico.

The 750,000 residents of Houston, Texas' largest city, covered in their homes and basements or in public shelters as the storm screamed overhead.

Rain, lashed along by wind gusts up to 100 miles an hour, swept the area in horizontal sheets.

Power and telephone lines were knocked down throughout the area and a network of radio amateurs went into operation to provide communications with the Red Cross Midwest disaster headquarters at St. Louis.

All electric lights were out in the towns of Freeport and Angleton, south of here, and wide sections of Houston were blackened as light poles and power lines fell under the storm's fury.

Twelve plate glass windows in the downtown area were broken as the storm hit. The glass exploded inward under the strong pressure of the wind and splinters flew like shrapnel.

As the storm swept inland, it clawed at many big and small towns such as Galveston, Danbury, Hoskins, Arcadia, Sugar Land, Alvin and Manvel.

The storm was swirling in a circle over a radius of 50 miles with its calm, dead eye, five miles across, at the center.

The eye passed just west of Houston, lashing the city's outskirts with 90 mile and hour winds. Within 25 miles of the center, winds were estimated at about 100 miles an hour. In downtown Houston gusts frequently approached 80 miles an hour.

In its 4 a. m. CST advisory, the Weather Bureau warned that the hurricane would reach Palestine and Lufkin, Tex., by early afternoon but said the winds would diminish as the storm moved inland.

As it swept over Houston, the storm hurled rain against buildings so hard that water literally streamed through the closed window sashes.

So much rain sloshed into the Houston United Press office that teletypes were shorted and workers received electric shocks as they tried to transmit news of the hurricane.

The Weather Bureau warned that although the storm had moved inland, seas and winds were still dangerously high along the Louisiana and eastern Texas gulf coasts.

Altho he was here for so short a time the happiness and joy he brought cannot be measured.
Hush, little one and fold your hands;
The sun hath set, the moon is high; Dream little one, and in your dreams, Float upward from this lowly place Float out on mellow misty streams, To lands where bideth Mary mild.
And let her kiss thy little face, You little child, my little child, Sleep little one, and take thy rest,
With angels bending over thee, Sleep sweetly on that father's breast.
O little Joe, my little child.

DEPENDABLE Electric POWER

...one of the BIG reasons Indiana's in the "Big Ten"

★ Our State can well be proud of its industrial and agricultural progress. The value of industrial goods produced in Indiana during 1948 earned us 9th place compared to all States of the Nation. Our agricultural income in 1948 was 7th highest, even though Indiana is only 37th in area. As a leader in industrial and agricultural production, Indiana is truly in the "Big Ten"—one of the Nation's leaders!

Back of this outstanding record is an ample supply of dependable electric power, pulsing throughout the length and breadth of our State, vitally important to production both in our factories and on our farms.

This Company, providing good electric service to the factories, farms, towns and cities in three-fourths of Indiana's counties, has a big responsibility... getting bigger every year. That's why Public Service has already more than doubled your 1940 electric power supply... why it will have more than tripled it by 1952. Electricity means production—and production means prosperity. Your electric Company is making every effort to assure the future prosperity of all its fellow citizens by making sure every electric need, now and in the future, can be fulfilled!

FARM NEWS

Southern broomgrass seeded alfalfa has won the rank "king of forage grasses" for hayland in Indiana that well limed and fertilized.

The southern strains of broomgrass, namely Achenbach, Fish, Lincoln, and Elsbury gave results about equal in performance and a much higher yield of forage per acre than the northern strain. This held true in northern part of the state as well as in the southern part. These findings are reported in a study begun in the fall of 1945 for the purpose of selecting the best adapted broomgrass strains for Indiana and to compare them with other cultivated grasses on similar sites.

Report of the work is given in the new circular 348, "Broomgrass Strains in Indiana," published by the department of agronomy, Agricultural Experiment Station and the Nursery Division of the Soil Conservation Service. Dr. G. O. Mott, pasture specialist at Purdue University, and J. J. Pierre of the Soil Conservation Service directed the study and are authors of the circular.

Others conclusions made by the pasture specialists are the alfalfa fescue is adapted throughout Indiana and there is undoubtedly a place for its use in grass waterways, turf purposes and for use as forage on soils that are a little too low in fertility to produce broomgrass.

Reed canary grass will produce forage if it is grown in association with a legume and is helped by several clippings. The old standby—timothy—still has a place for rotation hayland in short rotation hay grass.

Copies of the circular are available free from the county agent's office or the university.

NEW BULLETIN AIDS SHEEP INDUSTRY

The sheep industry in Indiana will continue to be based on the production of good lamb meat—meat obtained from only those carcasses which grade "good to choice." This statement is made by Henry Mayo and W. T. Anderson, of the division of animal husbandry, Purdue University, in the recent Purdue Agricultural Experiment Station bulletin, No. 353, "Sheep Management."

The sheep men, in the discussion of fall flock management, point out that a well-grown, rugged, heavily-muscled ram is essential in producing market topping lambs. Furthermore the ram should be of purebred stock, be vigorous and bold in temperament.

Feed for the ewes during the fall and early winter should come from Balho rye, winter wheat, common rye, bluegrass or other pastures. The sheep enterprise thrives and endures on farms where full use is made of legume roughages and good quality pastures. Flocks are soon disposed of when legumes are not provided. Blue grass which has not been pastured during the summer provides good feeding the animal husbandrymen advise.

Before fall, slow growing, late or unthrifty ewe lambs should have been culled from the flock. Also by this time the ewes should be tagged, the wool clipped from the udder, the heads sheared, and feet trimmed.

Included in the bulletin are discussions on care of the flock at lambing time, some common lamb troubles, feeding rations for lambs, and recommendations for pastures. Directions for hearing are given in detail. The bulletin is liberally illustrated to aid in the explanation of various practices.

Copies are available, free, from the county agent office or the university.

PRODUCING CLEAN EGGS

BETTER THAN WASHING Although egg washing machines have been developed and many are in use, Alexander Gordeuk, extension poultryman at Purdue University, believes it is still better to produce clean eggs rather than to depend upon washing.

Besides the controversy in the trade channels regarding washed eggs, the problem of extra labor and the investment in an egg washing machine also must be considered. Members of the egg trade feel that washed eggs do not hold up well in the channels of trade and in storage.

Where egg washing is necessary, it should be done carefully to preserve the quality of the egg. Gordeuk explains. The dirty eggs should be washed as soon as possible and should be sold where they will be consumed soon.

If an egg washing machine is used, the manufacturer's instructions should be followed exactly. In the dipping method, the solution should include a tablespoon of any of the new synthetic soap powders or chips to each gallon of warm water, preferably 150 to 165 degrees or at least warmer than the eggs.

In this process, the eggs should be dipped into the solution in wire baskets for three to five seconds, and a few minutes later should be dipped again for a similar period. After being rinsed with a spray nozzle and warm water at about 165 degrees, the eggs should be dried, allowed to cool, and then packed.

The flockowner should provide conditions which will prevent the soiling of eggs, such as having one nest for every five hens, keeping plenty of clean litter in the nest and a deep dry litter on the floor, collecting eggs at least three times daily, putting wire under the perches to keep the hens out of their night droppings, and providing a sodded or gravelled area in front of the house.
